

NORTH HAVEN.

April 24.—E. J. Dudley and H. L. Bassett are engaged to work for Dickerson, carpenter and builder, of Wallingford.

Miss Kate Hall of Wallingford was the guest of her brother, John Hall, several days last week, while Mrs. Hall visited her sisters in Bridgeport.

Letters received last week from Miss Anne Reynolds, world's secretary of Young Women's Christian associations, give her friends the information that she expects to sail from London on Saturday of this week for Cape Colony, South Africa, where she will stay for three weeks. From there she will sail for Australia, where she will spend two or three months in visiting Young Women's Christian associations. Miss Reynolds will not return to England from this trip till some time next winter.

A Boys' brigade in connection with church work is talked of and those interested are requested to meet at the parsonage on Tuesday evening to consider the matter.

After the exercises in the Congregational Sunday school on Sunday the 21st, the superintendent, G. E. Bassett, spoke of the death of Miss Loda Marks, the oldest member of the school, and one verse of the hymn, "My Days Are Gliding Swiftly By," was sung to her memory.

Mrs. C. N. Turner of North Hill is reported as one of the grip victims.

Mrs. S. F. Linsley is said to be suffering with nervous prostration. She has been an invalid some weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pierpont and their mother, Mrs. Harriet Pierpont, attended the funeral of Mr. Eobert V. Welton in Waterbury on Thursday, April 13.

Miss Alice Stiles and Miss Grace Pierpont attended the high school reception in Meriden last Wednesday evening.

Grand Juror F. H. Todd seems to have his hands full of business in District No. 2. Being so near the Wallingford line people from that town stray over.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall from Cheshire, a niece and nephew of Mrs. H. F. Tuttle, were her guests on Sunday and attended service in the Congregational church.

CHESHIRE.

April 24.—Rev. J. P. Hoyt has invited the Masons, Odd Fellows and members of the grange to attend service in a body at the Congregational church next Sunday evening, April 28, when he will preach a sermon appropriate to the occasion.

Services are being held nearly every evening this week in the several school districts conducted by the band of Christian Workers.

The W. C. T. U. will meet in the chapel of the Congregational church Friday afternoon at 2:30.

Catherine Hitchcock has been appointed executrix on the estate of the late Dan Hitchcock.

Dr. E. T. Cornwell, who was laid up by overwork a few days last week, started for South Carolina Tuesday for a short vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beadles arrived home Tuesday. They both are looking well. Mr. Beadles has gained quite a good deal, so that he can walk about without crutches.

Mr. Brown expects to have the book, "Historic Homes of Cheshire" ready for subscribers in a few days. Anyone not a subscriber will do well to send in their name soon and secure this most valuable and interesting book. For full particulars address E. R. Brown.

It is said that Edward H. Allen is soon to wed a young lady in Waterbury.

It is rumored that one of our popular young ladies is to be joined in wedlock the first of June to a popular young doctor.

The Kickapoo Indian Medicine company that have had full sway of our town hall for the last two weeks, have ROOM ON TROTHACHE. Instant relief.

Rough on Fits and Hysteria.
For nervous irritability, wakefulness, the severer forms of nervous headache, hysterical and epileptic tendency, convulsions, fits, delirium tremens, "the jags," "horror" hallucinations, etc., etc., at druggists or mailed. E. S. WELLS, Jersey City, N. J.

The People of Africa and India.
Of Arabia, Egypt, Japan, all South and Central America, Cuba, West and East Indies, Hawaiian Islands, Australia, New Zealand, Canada, Mexico, the Bahamas, England, Scotland, Ireland, Norway, Sweden, Belgium, Germany, Austria, France, Russia—the whole world, knows and uses "Rough on Rats" for rats, Cockroaches, Flies, Ants, Insects, Rats and Mice.

The Poor Man's Hope
and comfort, the rich man's pride and safety, ROUGH ON BILE PILLS, chocolate candy, and very small. They insure health to all by unloading the system, giving the stomach and bowels an opportunity to perform their natural functions. They start the bile into proper channels, regulate the liver and bowels, relieve sick vomiting spells and indigestion, cure Dyspepsia, Headache, Heartburn, Malaria, Fever, etc. and 25c. at Druggists.

A Wife's Advertisement.
Wives whose husbands are irritable, especially in the morning, should induce them to try ROUGH ON BILE PILLS. Their lives are evidently not right. They are bilious, maybe they don't rest good—sleep is heavy and disturbed. Peace and happiness, at 25c. per bottle of ROUGH ON BILE PILLS, is cheap. At Druggists or mailed. They are chocolate candy, tiny little things. E. S. WELLS, Jersey City, N. J.

WELLS' PINK PILLS
TONIC DRESSING TO ORIGINAL COLOR
RESTORES GRAY HAIR TO COLOR

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

The funeral of Stanchfield E. son of Anson Treat, was held Tuesday in Millford upon the arrival of the noon train from New York. The boy died Sunday night at the home of his parents, 1076 Madison avenue, New York city, after a brief illness.

The full amount of insurance, $400, upon the furniture and household goods destroyed at the Wallace fire has been allowed and the claim adjusted.

Pilgrim council of Meriden will be the guests of Wallingford council, Royal Arcanum, this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Burke were guests at the Thompson-Bryant wedding in West Haven last evening.

The funeral of Stanchfield E. son of Anson Treat, was held Tuesday in Millford upon the arrival of the noon train from New York. The boy died Sunday night at the home of his parents, 1076 Madison avenue, New York city, after a brief illness.

The funeral of Stanchfield E. son of Anson Treat, was held Tuesday in Millford upon the arrival of the noon train from New York. The boy died Sunday night at the home of his parents, 1076 Madison avenue, New York city, after a brief illness.

The funeral of Stanchfield E. son of Anson Treat, was held Tuesday in Millford upon the arrival of the noon train from New York. The boy died Sunday night at the home of his parents, 1076 Madison avenue, New York city, after a brief illness.

The funeral of Stanchfield E. son of Anson Treat, was held Tuesday in Millford upon the arrival of the noon train from New York. The boy died Sunday night at the home of his parents, 1076 Madison avenue, New York city, after a brief illness.

FAIR HAVEN.

Physical Phalanx—Home from Alabama.
Leased—The New Car House—Oyster Plants.

This evening at the Grand avenue Congregational church there will be a drill by the physical phalanx composed of young ladies who have been instructed by Miss May Blackeslee, and the Boys' brigade under the command of Lieutenant Potter of the Grays.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester P. Mallory have returned from a stay of several weeks in Alabama.

Contractor Lawrence O'Brien is laying the brick work for the tower for the new Grand avenue school house. The tower will be 125 feet high.

A schooner has arrived from Long Island with 125 tons of beach sand for W. A. Warner & Bro.

E. G. Allie of the Shore Line Times has leased this job printing department to Frank W. Moore, who is now in charge, and will conduct the same to the full satisfaction of all patrons.

Mr. Moore has several years experience as a manager, as well as being a practical printer.

The removal of the walls of the barn of the Fair Haven and Westville railroad to give place for the new car house is nearly completed. The walls were pulled down with ropes, and the work was watched with interest by many spectators. The front of the building was rebuilt only three years ago, and the work was looked upon as permanent, but the exigencies of the case rendered even greater improvements necessary. The row of elm trees in front of the building have been cut down.

Under the direction of Selectman Ludington a new crosswalk has been laid over East Grand avenue at Quinipiac street.

William Ames is very ill at his home on Quinipiac street.

Nearly all the oyster plants which are to be laid down on the beach beds have arrived. The plant this season will be only about 25,000 bushels as against about 50,000 bushels last year. Owing to the good set of native stock not as many Virginia plants as usual will be required the coming fall.

Repairs are being made at the A. H. Barnes drug store, which was damaged last week by fire.

FINE RECEPTION TO THEIR NEW PASTOR.

A reception was given to Rev. N. G. Cheney, the new pastor of the East Pearl street M. E. church, last evening. The audience room being crowded, L. W. Moody presided. Mr. Cheney was welcomed by the presiding elder, Rev. C. J. North, D. D., and other words of welcome were spoken by Rev. Dr. Marsden of the First church, Rev. Mr. Scofield of Grace church, Rev. Mr. Griffin of Epworth church, and Rev. Mr. Carr of St. Andrew's M. E. church. Rev. J. Lee Mitchell of the Grand avenue Congregational church spoke in behalf of the Fair Haven churches words of greeting, and a letter of regret from Rev. D. M. James of the Second Congregational church, Fair Haven, was read. Mr. Cheney responded to the greeting in a hearty and whole-souled speech. There were selections by the choir and after the exercises refreshments were served by the ladies of the church. The audience room was prettily decorated with flowers. It was a reception was given to Rev. N. G. Cheney, the new pastor of the East Pearl street M. E. church, last evening. The audience room being crowded, L. W. Moody presided. Mr. Cheney was welcomed by the presiding elder, Rev. C. J. North, D. D., and other words of welcome were spoken by Rev. Dr. Marsden of the First church, Rev. Mr. Scofield of Grace church, Rev. Mr. Griffin of Epworth church, and Rev. Mr. Carr of St. Andrew's M. E. church. Rev. J. Lee Mitchell of the Grand avenue Congregational church spoke in behalf of the Fair Haven churches words of greeting, and a letter of regret from Rev. D. M. James of the Second Congregational church, Fair Haven, was read. Mr. Cheney responded to the greeting in a hearty and whole-souled speech. There were selections by the choir and after the exercises refreshments were served by the ladies of the church. The audience room was prettily decorated with flowers. It was a

reception was given to Rev. N. G. Cheney, the new pastor of the East Pearl street M. E. church, last evening. The audience room being crowded, L. W. Moody presided. Mr. Cheney was welcomed by the presiding elder, Rev. C. J. North, D. D., and other words of welcome were spoken by Rev. Dr. Marsden of the First church, Rev. Mr. Scofield of Grace church, Rev. Mr. Griffin of Epworth church, and Rev. Mr. Carr of St. Andrew's M. E. church. Rev. J. Lee Mitchell of the Grand avenue Congregational church spoke in behalf of the Fair Haven churches words of greeting, and a letter of regret from Rev. D. M. James of the Second Congregational church, Fair Haven, was read. Mr. Cheney responded to the greeting in a hearty and whole-souled speech. There were selections by the choir and after the exercises refreshments were served by the ladies of the church. The audience room was prettily decorated with flowers. It was a

reception was given to Rev. N. G. Cheney, the new pastor of the East Pearl street M. E. church, last evening. The audience room being crowded, L. W. Moody presided. Mr. Cheney was welcomed by the presiding elder, Rev. C. J. North, D. D., and other words of welcome were spoken by Rev. Dr. Marsden of the First church, Rev. Mr. Scofield of Grace church, Rev. Mr. Griffin of Epworth church, and Rev. Mr. Carr of St. Andrew's M. E. church. Rev. J. Lee Mitchell of the Grand avenue Congregational church spoke in behalf of the Fair Haven churches words of greeting, and a letter of regret from Rev. D. M. James of the Second Congregational church, Fair Haven, was read. Mr. Cheney responded to the greeting in a hearty and whole-souled speech. There were selections by the choir and after the exercises refreshments were served by the ladies of the church. The audience room was prettily decorated with flowers. It was a

reception was given to Rev. N. G. Cheney, the new pastor of the East Pearl street M. E. church, last evening. The audience room being crowded, L. W. Moody presided. Mr. Cheney was welcomed by the presiding elder, Rev. C. J. North, D. D., and other words of welcome were spoken by Rev. Dr. Marsden of the First church, Rev. Mr. Scofield of Grace church, Rev. Mr. Griffin of Epworth church, and Rev. Mr. Carr of St. Andrew's M. E. church. Rev. J. Lee Mitchell of the Grand avenue Congregational church spoke in behalf of the Fair Haven churches words of greeting, and a letter of regret from Rev. D. M. James of the Second Congregational church, Fair Haven, was read. Mr. Cheney responded to the greeting in a hearty and whole-souled speech. There were selections by the choir and after the exercises refreshments were served by the ladies of the church. The audience room was prettily decorated with flowers. It was a

reception was given to Rev. N. G. Cheney, the new pastor of the East Pearl street M. E. church, last evening. The audience room being crowded, L. W. Moody presided. Mr. Cheney was welcomed by the presiding elder, Rev. C. J. North, D. D., and other words of welcome were spoken by Rev. Dr. Marsden of the First church, Rev. Mr. Scofield of Grace church, Rev. Mr. Griffin of Epworth church, and Rev. Mr. Carr of St. Andrew's M. E. church. Rev. J. Lee Mitchell of the Grand avenue Congregational church spoke in behalf of the Fair Haven churches words of greeting, and a letter of regret from Rev. D. M. James of the Second Congregational church, Fair Haven, was read. Mr. Cheney responded to the greeting in a hearty and whole-souled speech. There were selections by the choir and after the exercises refreshments were served by the ladies of the church. The audience room was prettily decorated with flowers. It was a

reception was given to Rev. N. G. Cheney, the new pastor of the East Pearl street M. E. church, last evening. The audience room being crowded, L. W. Moody presided. Mr. Cheney was welcomed by the presiding elder, Rev. C. J. North, D. D., and other words of welcome were spoken by Rev. Dr. Marsden of the First church, Rev. Mr. Scofield of Grace church, Rev. Mr. Griffin of Epworth church, and Rev. Mr. Carr of St. Andrew's M. E. church. Rev. J. Lee Mitchell of the Grand avenue Congregational church spoke in behalf of the Fair Haven churches words of greeting, and a letter of regret from Rev. D. M. James of the Second Congregational church, Fair Haven, was read. Mr. Cheney responded to the greeting in a hearty and whole-souled speech. There were selections by the choir and after the exercises refreshments were served by the ladies of the church. The audience room was prettily decorated with flowers. It was a

reception was given to Rev. N. G. Cheney, the new pastor of the East Pearl street M. E. church, last evening. The audience room being crowded, L. W. Moody presided. Mr. Cheney was welcomed by the presiding elder, Rev. C. J. North, D. D., and other words of welcome were spoken by Rev. Dr. Marsden of the First church, Rev. Mr. Scofield of Grace church, Rev. Mr. Griffin of Epworth church, and Rev. Mr. Carr of St. Andrew's M. E. church. Rev. J. Lee Mitchell of the Grand avenue Congregational church spoke in behalf of the Fair Haven churches words of greeting, and a letter of regret from Rev. D. M. James of the Second Congregational church, Fair Haven, was read. Mr. Cheney responded to the greeting in a hearty and whole-souled speech. There were selections by the choir and after the exercises refreshments were served by the ladies of the church. The audience room was prettily decorated with flowers. It was a

reception was given to Rev. N. G. Cheney, the new pastor of the East Pearl street M. E. church, last evening. The audience room being crowded, L. W. Moody presided. Mr. Cheney was welcomed by the presiding elder, Rev. C. J. North, D. D., and other words of welcome were spoken by Rev. Dr. Marsden of the First church, Rev. Mr. Scofield of Grace church, Rev. Mr. Griffin of Epworth church, and Rev. Mr. Carr of St. Andrew's M. E. church. Rev. J. Lee Mitchell of the Grand avenue Congregational church spoke in behalf of the Fair Haven churches words of greeting, and a letter of regret from Rev. D. M. James of the Second Congregational church, Fair Haven, was read. Mr. Cheney responded to the greeting in a hearty and whole-souled speech. There were selections by the choir and after the exercises refreshments were served by the ladies of the church. The audience room was prettily decorated with flowers. It was a

reception was given to Rev. N. G. Cheney, the new pastor of the East Pearl street M. E. church, last evening. The audience room being crowded, L. W. Moody presided. Mr. Cheney was welcomed by the presiding elder, Rev. C. J. North, D. D., and other words of welcome were spoken by Rev. Dr. Marsden of the First church, Rev. Mr. Scofield of Grace church, Rev. Mr. Griffin of Epworth church, and Rev. Mr. Carr of St. Andrew's M. E. church. Rev. J. Lee Mitchell of the Grand avenue Congregational church spoke in behalf of the Fair Haven churches words of greeting, and a letter of regret from Rev. D. M. James of the Second Congregational church, Fair Haven, was read. Mr. Cheney responded to the greeting in a hearty and whole-souled speech. There were selections by the choir and after the exercises refreshments were served by the ladies of the church. The audience room was prettily decorated with flowers. It was a

reception was given to Rev. N. G. Cheney, the new pastor of the East Pearl street M. E. church, last evening. The audience room being crowded, L. W. Moody presided. Mr. Cheney was welcomed by the presiding elder, Rev. C. J. North, D. D., and other words of welcome were spoken by Rev. Dr. Marsden of the First church, Rev. Mr. Scofield of Grace church, Rev. Mr. Griffin of Epworth church, and Rev. Mr. Carr of St. Andrew's M. E. church. Rev. J. Lee Mitchell of the Grand avenue Congregational church spoke in behalf of the Fair Haven churches words of greeting, and a letter of regret from Rev. D. M. James of the Second Congregational church, Fair Haven, was read. Mr. Cheney responded to the greeting in a hearty and whole-souled speech. There were selections by the choir and after the exercises refreshments were served by the ladies of the church. The audience room was prettily decorated with flowers. It was a

reception was given to Rev. N. G. Cheney, the new pastor of the East Pearl street M. E. church, last evening. The audience room being crowded, L. W. Moody presided. Mr. Cheney was welcomed by the presiding elder, Rev. C. J. North, D. D., and other words of welcome were spoken by Rev. Dr. Marsden of the First church, Rev. Mr. Scofield of Grace church, Rev. Mr. Griffin of Epworth church, and Rev. Mr. Carr of St. Andrew's M. E. church. Rev. J. Lee Mitchell of the Grand avenue Congregational church spoke in behalf of the Fair Haven churches words of greeting, and a letter of regret from Rev. D. M. James of the Second Congregational church, Fair Haven, was read. Mr. Cheney responded to the greeting in a hearty and whole-souled speech. There were selections by the choir and after the exercises refreshments were served by the ladies of the church. The audience room was prettily decorated with flowers. It was a

reception was given to Rev. N. G. Cheney, the new pastor of the East Pearl street M. E. church, last evening. The audience room being crowded, L. W. Moody presided. Mr. Cheney was welcomed by the presiding elder, Rev. C. J. North, D. D., and other words of welcome were spoken by Rev. Dr. Marsden of the First church, Rev. Mr. Scofield of Grace church, Rev. Mr. Griffin of Epworth church, and Rev. Mr. Carr of St. Andrew's M. E. church. Rev. J. Lee Mitchell of the Grand avenue Congregational church spoke in behalf of the Fair Haven churches words of greeting, and a letter of regret from Rev. D. M. James of the Second Congregational church, Fair Haven, was read. Mr. Cheney responded to the greeting in a hearty and whole-souled speech. There were selections by the choir and after the exercises refreshments were served by the ladies of the church. The audience room was prettily decorated with flowers. It was a

reception was given to Rev. N. G. Cheney, the new pastor of the East Pearl street M. E. church, last evening. The audience room being crowded, L. W. Moody presided. Mr. Cheney was welcomed by the presiding elder, Rev. C. J. North, D. D., and other words of welcome were spoken by Rev. Dr. Marsden of the First church, Rev. Mr. Scofield of Grace church, Rev. Mr. Griffin of Epworth church, and Rev. Mr. Carr of St. Andrew's M. E. church. Rev. J. Lee Mitchell of the Grand avenue Congregational church spoke in behalf of the Fair Haven churches words of greeting, and a letter of regret from Rev. D. M. James of the Second Congregational church, Fair Haven, was read. Mr. Cheney responded to the greeting in a hearty and whole-souled speech. There were selections by the choir and after the exercises refreshments were served by the ladies of the church. The audience room was prettily decorated with flowers. It was a

reception was given to Rev. N. G. Cheney, the new pastor of the East Pearl street M. E. church, last evening. The audience room being crowded, L. W. Moody presided. Mr. Cheney was welcomed by the presiding elder, Rev. C. J. North, D. D., and other words of welcome were spoken by Rev. Dr. Marsden of the First church, Rev. Mr. Scofield of Grace church, Rev. Mr. Griffin of Epworth church, and Rev. Mr. Carr of St. Andrew's M. E. church. Rev. J. Lee Mitchell of the Grand avenue Congregational church spoke in behalf of the Fair Haven churches words of greeting, and a letter of regret from Rev. D. M. James of the Second Congregational church, Fair Haven, was read. Mr. Cheney responded to the greeting in a hearty and whole-souled speech. There were selections by the choir and after the exercises refreshments were served by the ladies of the church. The audience room was prettily decorated with flowers. It was a

reception was given to Rev. N. G. Cheney, the new pastor of the East Pearl street M. E. church, last evening. The audience room being crowded, L. W. Moody presided. Mr. Cheney was welcomed by the presiding elder, Rev. C. J. North, D. D., and other words of welcome were spoken by Rev. Dr. Marsden of the First church, Rev. Mr. Scofield of Grace church, Rev. Mr. Griffin of Epworth church, and Rev. Mr. Carr of St. Andrew's M. E. church. Rev. J. Lee Mitchell of the Grand avenue Congregational church spoke in behalf of the Fair Haven churches words of greeting, and a letter of regret from Rev. D. M. James of the Second Congregational church, Fair Haven, was read. Mr. Cheney responded to the greeting in a hearty and whole-souled speech. There were selections by the choir and after the exercises refreshments were served by the ladies of the church. The audience room was prettily decorated with flowers. It was a

reception was given to Rev. N. G. Cheney, the new pastor of the East Pearl street M. E. church, last evening. The audience room being crowded, L. W. Moody presided. Mr. Cheney was welcomed by the presiding elder, Rev. C. J. North, D. D., and other words of welcome were spoken by Rev. Dr. Marsden of the First church, Rev. Mr. Scofield of Grace church, Rev. Mr. Griffin of Epworth church, and Rev. Mr. Carr of St. Andrew's M. E. church. Rev. J. Lee Mitchell of the Grand avenue Congregational church spoke in behalf of the Fair Haven churches words of greeting, and a letter of regret from Rev. D. M. James of the Second Congregational church, Fair Haven, was read. Mr. Cheney responded to the greeting in a hearty and whole-souled speech. There were selections by the choir and after the exercises refreshments were served by the ladies of the church. The audience room was prettily decorated with flowers. It was a

reception was given to Rev. N. G. Cheney, the new pastor of the East Pearl street M. E. church, last evening. The audience room being crowded, L. W. Moody presided. Mr. Cheney was welcomed by the presiding elder, Rev. C. J. North, D. D., and other words of welcome were spoken by Rev. Dr. Marsden of the First church, Rev. Mr. Scofield of Grace church, Rev. Mr. Griffin of Epworth church, and Rev. Mr. Carr of St. Andrew's M. E. church. Rev. J. Lee Mitchell of the Grand avenue Congregational church spoke in behalf of the Fair Haven churches words of greeting, and a letter of regret from Rev. D. M. James of the Second Congregational church, Fair Haven, was read. Mr. Cheney responded to the greeting in a hearty and whole-souled speech. There were selections by the choir and after the exercises refreshments were served by the ladies of the church. The audience room was prettily decorated with flowers. It was a

reception was given to Rev. N. G. Cheney, the new pastor of the East Pearl street M. E. church, last evening. The audience room being crowded, L. W. Moody presided. Mr. Cheney was welcomed by the presiding elder, Rev. C. J. North, D. D., and other words of welcome were spoken by Rev. Dr. Marsden of the First church, Rev. Mr. Scofield of Grace church, Rev. Mr. Griffin of Epworth church, and Rev. Mr. Carr of St. Andrew's M. E. church. Rev. J. Lee Mitchell of the Grand avenue Congregational church spoke in behalf of the Fair Haven churches words of greeting, and a letter of regret from Rev. D. M. James of the Second Congregational church, Fair Haven, was read. Mr. Cheney responded to the greeting in a hearty and whole-souled speech. There were selections by the choir and after the exercises refreshments were served by the ladies of the church. The audience room was prettily decorated with flowers. It was a

reception was given to Rev. N. G. Cheney, the new pastor of the East Pearl street M. E. church, last evening. The audience room being crowded, L. W. Moody presided. Mr. Cheney was welcomed by the presiding elder, Rev. C. J. North, D. D., and other words of welcome were spoken by Rev. Dr. Marsden of the First church, Rev. Mr. Scofield of Grace church, Rev. Mr. Griffin of Epworth church, and Rev. Mr. Carr of St. Andrew's M. E. church. Rev. J. Lee Mitchell of the Grand avenue Congregational church spoke in behalf of the Fair Haven churches words of greeting, and a letter of regret from Rev. D. M. James of the Second Congregational church, Fair Haven, was read. Mr. Cheney responded to the greeting in a hearty and whole-souled speech. There were selections by the choir and after the exercises refreshments were served by the ladies of the church. The audience room was prettily decorated with flowers. It was a

reception was given to Rev. N. G. Cheney, the new pastor of the East Pearl street M. E. church, last evening. The audience room being crowded, L. W. Moody presided. Mr. Cheney was welcomed by the presiding elder, Rev. C. J. North, D. D., and other words of welcome were spoken by Rev. Dr. Marsden of the First church, Rev. Mr. Scofield of Grace church, Rev. Mr. Griffin of Epworth church, and Rev. Mr. Carr of St. Andrew's M. E. church. Rev. J. Lee Mitchell of the Grand avenue Congregational church spoke in behalf of the Fair Haven churches words of greeting, and a letter of regret from Rev. D. M. James of the Second Congregational church, Fair Haven, was read. Mr. Cheney responded to the greeting in a hearty and whole-souled speech. There were selections by the choir and after the exercises refreshments were served by the ladies of the church. The audience room was prettily decorated with flowers. It was a

reception was given to Rev. N. G. Cheney, the new pastor of the East Pearl street M. E. church, last evening. The audience room being crowded, L. W. Moody presided. Mr. Cheney was welcomed by the presiding elder, Rev. C. J. North, D. D., and other words of welcome were spoken by Rev. Dr. Marsden of the First church, Rev. Mr. Scofield of Grace church, Rev. Mr. Griffin of Epworth church, and Rev. Mr. Carr of St. Andrew's M. E. church. Rev. J. Lee Mitchell of the Grand avenue Congregational church spoke in behalf of the Fair Haven churches words of greeting, and a letter of regret from Rev. D. M. James of the Second Congregational church, Fair Haven, was read. Mr. Cheney responded to the greeting in a hearty and whole-souled speech. There were selections by the choir and after the exercises refreshments were served by the ladies of the church. The audience room was prettily decorated with flowers. It was a

reception was given to Rev. N. G. Cheney, the new pastor of the East Pearl street M. E. church, last evening. The audience room being crowded, L. W. Moody presided. Mr. Cheney was welcomed by the presiding elder, Rev. C. J. North, D. D., and other words of welcome were spoken by Rev. Dr. Marsden of the First church, Rev. Mr. Scofield of Grace church, Rev. Mr. Griffin of Epworth church, and Rev. Mr. Carr of St. Andrew's M. E. church. Rev. J. Lee Mitchell of the Grand avenue Congregational church spoke in behalf of the Fair Haven churches words of greeting, and a letter of regret from Rev. D. M. James of the Second Congregational church, Fair Haven, was read. Mr. Cheney responded to the greeting in a hearty and whole-souled speech. There were selections by the choir and after the exercises refreshments were served by the ladies of the church. The audience room was prettily decorated with flowers. It was a

reception was given to Rev. N. G. Cheney, the new pastor of the East Pearl street M. E. church, last evening. The audience room being crowded, L. W. Moody presided. Mr. Cheney was welcomed by the presiding elder, Rev. C. J. North, D. D., and other words of welcome were spoken by Rev. Dr. Marsden of the First church, Rev. Mr. Scofield of Grace church, Rev. Mr. Griffin of Epworth church, and Rev. Mr. Carr of St. Andrew's M. E. church. Rev. J. Lee Mitchell of the Grand avenue Congregational church spoke in behalf of the Fair Haven churches words of greeting, and a letter of regret from Rev. D. M. James of the Second Congregational church, Fair Haven, was read. Mr. Cheney responded to the greeting in a hearty and whole-souled speech. There were selections by the choir and after the exercises refreshments were served by the ladies of the church. The audience room was prettily decorated with flowers. It was a most successful reception and Mr. Cheney is starting off in his pastoral work under excellent auspices for success.

ORIENTAL SOCIETY MEETING.
Officers Elected for the Year—Valuable Gift From the King of Siam.

The annual meeting of the American Oriental society was held at Yale yesterday morning. It was a smaller meeting than usual, about thirty members being present, because it followed soon after the big memorial meeting which was held in Philadelphia in honor of Professor Whitney. President Daniel C. Gilman of Johns Hopkins university was elected president. Professor Charles Lauman of Harvard was elected corresponding secretary in place of Professor Perry of Columbia, who has found that he will be unable to attend to the duties of the position this year. Professor Lauman was formerly corresponding secretary. Professor Van Name of Yale was re-elected recording secretary.

The society has just received among its valuable contributions an important and interesting gift from His Majesty the King of Siam. It consists of an edition of the sacred writings of the southern Buddhists, the Tripitaka, which is in the Pali language, but written with the Siamese characters, and is published in commemoration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the king's reign. It consists of thirty-nine volumes in the original text, each containing a portrait of the king. They are printed in European style and bound in half morocco of the sacred color, yellow, and have impressed upon their cover the arms of the Siam.

A copy of the edition has also been presented to Yale university.

Tired of Life.
South Coventry, April 24.—George M. Marcy, aged sixty-five years, a well known resident of this place, attempted suicide late last night by hanging himself in his barn and is in a critical condition.

William Ames is very ill at his home on Quinipiac street.

Nearly all the oyster plants which are to be laid down on the beach beds have arrived. The plant this season will be only about 25,000 bushels as against about 50,000 bushels last year. Owing to the good set of native stock not as many Virginia plants as usual will be required the coming fall.

Repairs are being made at the A. H. Barnes drug store, which was damaged last week by fire.

FINE RECEPTION TO THEIR NEW PASTOR.

A reception was given to Rev. N. G. Cheney, the new pastor of the East Pearl street M. E. church, last evening. The audience room being crowded, L. W. Moody presided. Mr. Cheney was welcomed by the presiding elder, Rev. C. J. North, D. D., and other words of welcome were spoken by Rev. Dr. Marsden of the First church, Rev. Mr. Scofield of Grace church, Rev. Mr. Griffin of Epworth church, and Rev. Mr. Carr of St. Andrew's M. E. church. Rev. J. Lee Mitchell of the Grand avenue Congregational church spoke in behalf of the Fair Haven churches words of greeting, and a letter of regret from Rev. D. M. James of the Second Congregational church, Fair Haven, was read. Mr. Cheney responded to the greeting in a hearty and whole-souled speech. There were selections by the choir and after the exercises refreshments were served by the ladies of the church. The audience room was prettily decorated with flowers. It was a reception was given to Rev. N. G. Cheney, the new pastor of the East Pearl street M. E. church, last evening. The audience room being crowded, L. W. Moody presided. Mr. Cheney was welcomed by the presiding elder, Rev. C. J. North, D. D., and other words of welcome were spoken by Rev. Dr. Marsden of the First church, Rev. Mr. Scofield of Grace church, Rev. Mr. Griffin of Epworth church, and Rev. Mr. Carr of St. Andrew's M. E. church. Rev. J. Lee Mitchell of the Grand avenue Congregational church spoke in behalf of the Fair Haven churches words of greeting, and a letter of regret from Rev. D. M. James of the Second Congregational church, Fair Haven, was read. Mr. Cheney responded to the greeting in a hearty and whole-souled speech. There were selections by the choir and after the exercises refreshments were served by the ladies of the church. The audience room was prettily decorated with flowers. It was a

reception was given to Rev. N. G. Cheney, the new pastor of the East Pearl street M. E. church, last evening. The audience room being crowded, L. W. Moody presided. Mr. Cheney was welcomed by the presiding elder, Rev. C. J. North, D. D., and other words of welcome were spoken by Rev. Dr. Marsden of the First church, Rev. Mr. Scofield of Grace church, Rev. Mr. Griffin of Epworth church, and Rev. Mr. Carr of St. Andrew's M. E. church. Rev. J. Lee Mitchell of the Grand avenue Congregational church spoke in behalf of the Fair Haven churches words of greeting, and a letter of regret from Rev. D. M. James of the Second Congregational church, Fair Haven, was read. Mr. Cheney responded to the greeting in a hearty and whole-souled speech. There were selections by the choir and after the exercises refreshments were served by the ladies of the church. The audience room was prettily decorated with flowers. It was a

reception was given to Rev. N. G. Cheney, the new pastor of the East Pearl street M. E. church, last evening. The audience room being crowded, L. W. Moody presided. Mr. Cheney was welcomed by the presiding elder, Rev. C. J. North, D. D., and other words of welcome were spoken by Rev. Dr. Marsden of the First church, Rev. Mr. Scofield of Grace church, Rev. Mr. Griffin of Epworth church, and Rev. Mr. Carr of St. Andrew's M. E. church. Rev. J. Lee Mitchell of the Grand avenue Congregational church spoke in behalf of the Fair Haven churches words of greeting, and a letter of regret from Rev. D. M. James of the Second Congregational church, Fair Haven, was read. Mr. Cheney responded to the greeting in a hearty and whole-souled speech. There were selections by the choir and after the exercises refreshments were served by the ladies of the church. The audience room was prettily decorated with flowers. It was a reception was given to Rev. N. G. Cheney, the new pastor of the East Pearl street M. E. church, last evening. The audience room being crowded, L. W. Moody presided. Mr. Cheney was welcomed by the presiding elder, Rev. C. J. North, D. D., and other words of welcome were spoken by Rev. Dr. Marsden of the First church, Rev. Mr. Scofield of Grace church, Rev. Mr. Griffin of Epworth church, and Rev. Mr. Carr of St